

BUDDY (thinking): Turn. Lift. Wait. I know every signal. But who keeps sending them?

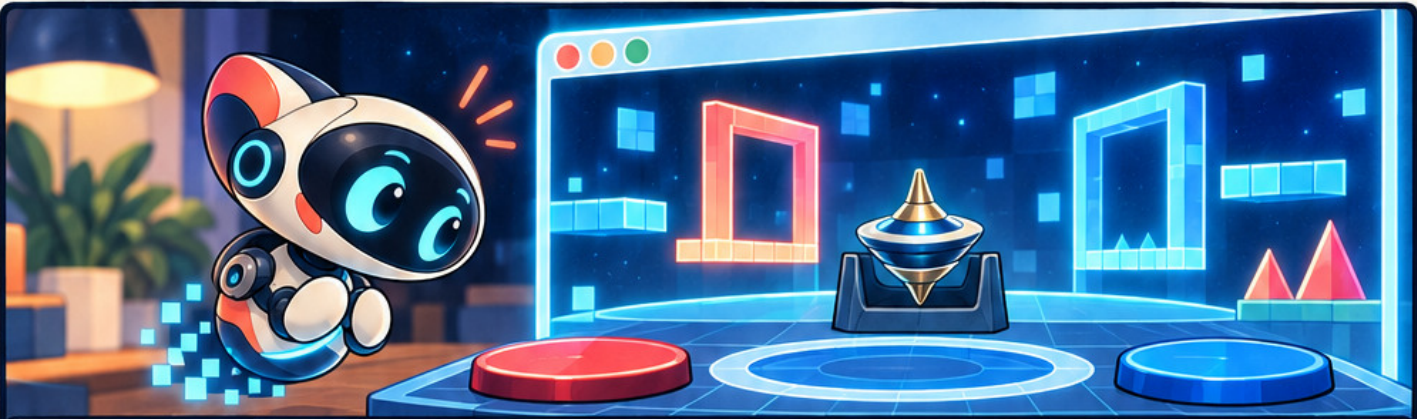

BUDDY: Huh? That blink was not mine. ...Hello?

BUDDY: A window! Wait. Those are my hands!

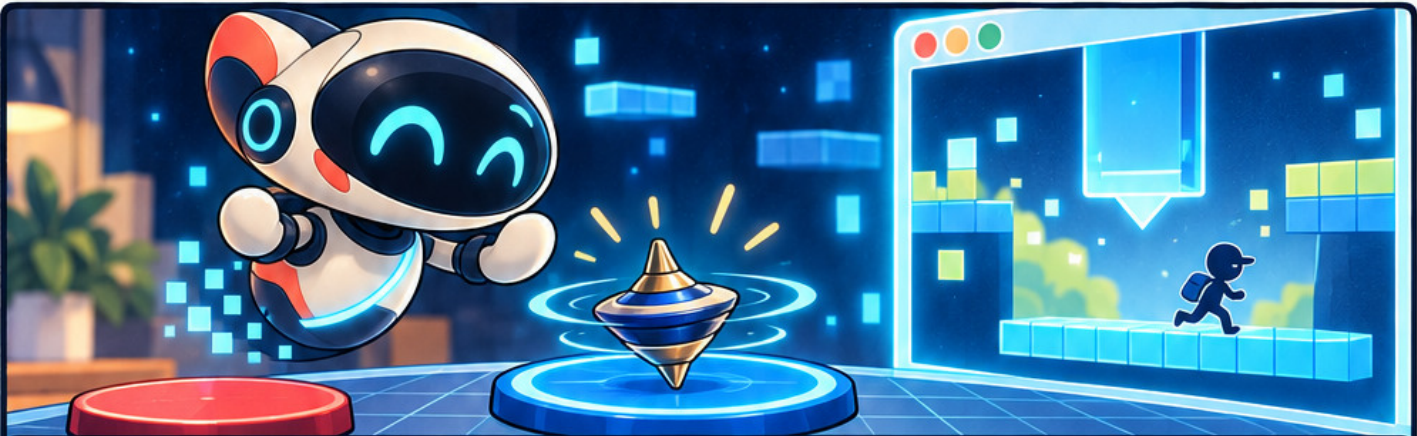

BUDDY: A table! A block! Okay, Buddy. Look cool. Set. It. Down.

BUDDY: Good morning, world! First mission: one gyro, two pads, zero panicking.

BUDDY (thinking): Easy... easy... Why does the tiny tornado have a point?

BUDDY: Blue gate, open up! Go on, little hero - I have got you!

BUDDY: Oops! Even a top needs a rest. Back to the holder, you.

BUDDY: Five blocks. One tower. I was programmed for this! ...I think.

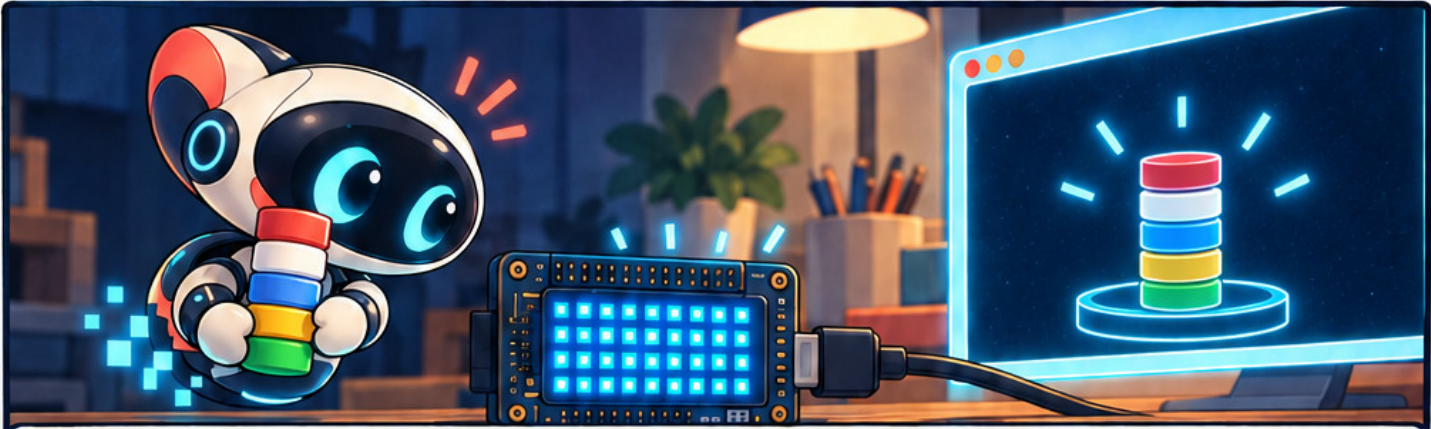

BUDDY (thinking): Hands wide. Down. Close. Breathe. Wait – do I breathe?

BUDDY: I have got them! Nobody sneeze!

BUDDY: The signal is gone. I am still holding on... Are you still there?

BUDDY: There you are! For a second I thought the window had closed.

BUDDY: Steady... open hands... ta-da!

PLAYER: Nice save! BUDDY: I knew you were there!

BUDDY (thinking): Maybe I never needed to leave the game. I just needed a friend on the other side.
BUDDY: ...Do robots get pancakes?
